Hi Michael,

I just did, yesterday evening ! Thank you for asking. I'm relieved, excited, but also a little sad to be leaving my home of 16 years. Mixed emotions.

I know it may be easy to say when things turn out well, but I really did get a perfect comparison between a good and not so good agent. You handled your client and me exceptionally well, knowing when and how to keep us calm and when to push the accelerator pedal. It was a protracted and unpredictable sale but you managed to get it done to the benefit of all of us.

I'm away for a couple of days but I'll pop into the office next week.

Thanks again
