Michael, I just wanted to let you know that I exchanged contracts yesterday. I move tomorrow (you know me, nothing like last minute drama to keep me going).

My buyer's solicitor was on a par with Rebecca's, it was horribly painful, she forgot to ask my buyer for a deposit, then he had a bank "glitch", then at 4.30 pm, she was asking for Deed of Covenants from me to put him on as a director of the freehold company after I'd resigned, it was hellish. But, we got there.

I so wanted it to be you who sold the flat for me Michael, there is no one I would rather deal with and I have gone a little bonkers with ■■■■■ .. I don't think I need to say more.

I suspect I won't be moving back to Belsize Park, but I will consistently recommend you to everyone who could possibly be looking to move, you have always been brilliant to me so thank you so much.

Kind regards, and I hope our paths cross in future.
