Michael,

In the face of a very complicated sale, with difficulties arising constantly, and demanding parties on the various sides of the fence, you kept your cool and kept the sale moving along. With the uncertain market, it seemed at times that the sale might not happen but with unfailing charm, courtesy and professionalism, you clearly played a massive part in making sure it did happen. I'm sure lots of people remember their estate agent for the wrong reasons but I am very gratefully to have had you involved in the sale process and will be grateful for a long time to come. I wouldn't hesitate to recommend you or Hadleigh to others seeking to sell in the area.

Regards,

Seth
